Teaching Assistant Scholarship Recommendation

2011 Conference • April 7-10 @ Arrowmont

Recipients of the SFFA Teaching Assistant Scholarship are involved in a wide variety of classroom activities, from setting up and cleaning up furniture and equipment to copying and handing out materials to helping students solve problems. Work assignments will be made and supervised by instructors, but for the most part, students will have time to work independently on their own projects after assignments are completed. Recipients must arrive by 2pm on Thursday, April 7 and plan to stay until 2pm on Sunday, April 10th. Dorm-style lodging and meals are provided, tuition is waived.

Please return this completed form, along with a bio or resume of the applicant, by February 1, 2011 to:
